

Privacy Notice

Lynn's Catering Inc. understands that every customer is concerned with security when personal information is required when purchasing online. Read our privacy policy.

...Safe Shopping...

Transaction Security Methods and Privacy Policy

Lynnscateringinc.com will not divulge any information we receive from customers to anyone. We will not rent, sell or give your name or credit card information or purchase history to any other company, agency or individual.

At Lynnscatering.com, our customers' personal security is extremely important. We support the highest internet standard of Secure Socket Layers or SSL to ensure that the transmission of your sensitive information can not be intercepted or decoded.

To ensure that your order is being placed on a Secure Socket Layer, there are several visual clues displayed by your browser.

...Secure Server...

First, you will notice the "http in your browser's URL location has changed to "https". In Netscape browsers, you will see the lock located in the lower left corner will now appear closed with a slight glow

Microsoft Internet Explorer browsers will also display these closed lock, but in the lower right corner of the browser.

Regardless of your browser, this website will display these visual clues to assure you, that your information is being transferred securely.